

CHAPTER 8.

GRAND TREASURER

As to Election, Installation, Term, Title, Vacancies, Succession, and Discipline of Grand Lodge Officers, See Chapter 5.

POWERS AND DUTIES

Constitutional Provisions

It is the duty of the Grand Treasurer to receive all monies received or collected for or on account of the Grand Lodge, giving his receipt for same and to keep a just and true account thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, to which the Grand Master and Corporate Board shall at all times have free access for inspection; and at each Annual Communication to make a full and accurate statement of his accounts, to be laid before the Committee on Finance and Accounts for examination and report. In case of the death, resignation, or removal from office of the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Master has authority to take possession of all the books, papers, accounts, and funds appertaining to his office, to be turned over to his successor in office. The Grand Treasurer, for his service and responsibilities, shall be entitled to receive compensation as may be provided for, from time to time, by Budget appropriation. (Art. VI, Sec. 9) (1984)

Regulations

8.01 The Grand Treasurer shall give a good and sufficient surety bond conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, payable to the Grand Lodge in a sum of not less than $10,000.00, the premium to be paid by the Grand Lodge.

REVENUE AND FINANCES

References

See Grand Lodge Revenue and Finances; Chapter 14.